About us

FRAGMAT-COR is young company dedicated to innovation and constant improvement of our products and services. We are founded in 2015. as member of FRAGMAT group. FRAGMAT group is well known manufacturer of construction heat and hydro insulation in South-east Europe.

Fragmat Cor is specialized for production of decorative moldings for interior.

We own a high-end technology for extrusion of XPS moldings, which together with our skilled employees, provide us high quality and productivity while respecting all related environment standards.

Materials we use are environment friendly. Our products are fully recyclable and don't contain Freon and other flammable gases.

Company is located in Šid, Serbia.

FRAGMAT-COR decorative moldings are used for interior decoration. They are used to decorate walls and ceilings, indirect lighting, hiding cables and wires, hiding some imperfections on different joints in interior, decorating door frames...

Decorative moldings are installed with acrylic sealants for XPS/EPS materials in interior.

FRAGMAT-COR moldings are made from extruded XPS which gives them high toughness and elasticity. Moldings should be painted with water dispersions or acrylic paints.
